AUTOMATIC LANDLORD NOTIFICATION SYSTEM

Dear Rental Property Owner/Manager,

The City of Maple Grove has developed an automatic email notification system for rental property owners and managers. This system has the ability to notify landlords of police contacts at their rental properties to help keep them more aware of potential police contacts with their tenants. This is a voluntarily service offered to landlords with no cost.

Each notification will inform the landlord of the police case number, date and time of incident, type of incident, incident address, and the disposition of the contact. The automatic email notifications run on a five day delayed schedule and are only sent when there is a police contact at the physical rental address. There is an example of one of the notification emails on the backside of this document for your review.

If you are interested in signing up for this service you can fill out the information below and return it to us by one of the methods listed. If additional space is needed feel free to utilize space on the back of this document or by attaching additional paperwork.

First and last name: _____

Address of rental property: _____

Email address for notifications: _____

(If you have multiple rental addresses they will all need to be listed in order for them all to be enrolled into the system. You can list multiple email addresses to receive notifications on as well.)

Please return information to us by:

Resident, any member of the resident's household, or a guest or other person under the resident's control shall not engage in acts of violence or threats of violence, including but not limited to the unlawful discharge of firearms, prostitution, criminal street gang activity, intimidation, or any other breach of the rental agreement that otherwise jeopardizes the health, safety or welfare of the landlord, his agents or tenants.
6. VIOLATION OF THE ABOVE PROVISIONS SHALL BE A MATERIAL VIOLATION OF THE LEASE AND GOOD CAUSE FOR TERMINATION OF TENANCY. A single violation of any of the provisions of this added addendum shall be deemed a serious violation and material non-compliance with the lease.

It is understood and agreed that a single violation shall be good cause for termination of the lease. Unless otherwise provided by law, proof of violation shall not require criminal conviction, but shall be by the preponderance of the evidence.

7. In case of conflict between the provisions of this addendum and any other provisions of the lease, the provisions of the addendum shall govern.
8. This LEASE ADDENDUM is incorporated into the lease executed or renewed this day between Owner and Resident.

FOOTNOTE(S):

--- (7) ---

Editor's note— Ord. No. 11-08, § 1, adopted Oct. 17, 2011, repealed the former art. XI, §§ 10-341—10-386, and enacted a new art. XI as set out herein. The former art. XI pertained to similar subject matter and derived from Code 1984. See the 1984 Code Comparative Table for full derivation.

Sec. 10-341. - Purpose and intent.

- (a) The purpose of this article is to protect the health and safety and the welfare of the rental population of the city. These general objectives include, among others, the following:
- (1) Maintain a quality character and stability of rental units within the city.
 - (2) Correct and prevent rental housing conditions that adversely affect or are likely to adversely affect the life, safety, welfare and health of persons occupying rental units within the city.
 - (3) Provide minimum standards for cooking, heating and sanitary equipment necessary to the health and safety of occupants of rental units.
 - (4) Provide minimum standards of light and ventilation necessary to health and safety.
 - (5) Prevent the overcrowding of rental units by providing minimum space standards per occupant for each rental unit.
 - (6) Provide minimum standards for the maintenance of rental units, and thus prevent slums and blight.
 - (7) Preserve the value of land and buildings throughout the city.
- (b) With respect to rental disputes and except as otherwise specifically provided by the terms of this article, it is not the intention of the city to intrude upon the fair and accepted contractual relationship between tenant and landlord. The city does not intend to intervene as an advocate of either party, or to act as an arbiter, or to be receptive to complaints from a tenant or landlord which are not specifically and clearly relevant to the provisions of this article. In the absence of such relevancy with regard to rental disputes, it is intended that the contracting parties exercise such legal rights as are available to them without the intervention of the city.

The submission of a license application, or the possession of a license issued by the city, shall constitute the express consent of the owner to grant free access and entry to the structure or premises under his control for inspection pursuant to this article. If any owner refuses to permit or schedule free access and entry to the structure or premises under his control for such inspection, or refuses to be present during any such inspection when requested by the compliance official, the application for a new or renewal rental license shall be immediately denied for such refusal. If at any other time the compliance official seeks entry to a licensed rental unit for inspection and the compliance official is refused free access and entry, the compliance official may pursue any remedy at law, including, but not limited to, securing an administrative search warrant for the property, revoking or suspending the rental license, or seeking such other remedies provided by law.

- (b) The licensee shall not be entitled to a refund of any license fee upon revocation or suspension of the license, but may be entitled to a refund if the owner voluntarily ceases to operate a rental unit. Said refund shall be prorated for each full year of the term of the license beyond the date of notification to the city by the owner. The city shall be notified within 30 days of the termination of the rental agreement between the owner and the renter to determine a refund, if any.
